Luke 2:52

"I may not remember everything my professors said in class but I will always remember their love for Christ, love for the students and love for GFU. Many of my professors have expressed a sense of humility by showing us that we are all both teachers and learners in the classroom."

~ Lisa Shafer

Entertainment

Below: Sarah Dorsey headed up the Orientation Committee to prepare a fantastic welcome for the freshmen. The O-Committee put together a skit, as well as a song and dance routine that was a huge hit with the new freshmen.

When the freshmen arrived on campus, returning students swarmed to their cars to help them carry things to their new homes. Most freshmen found this to be an awesome blessing, as well as a huge time-saver!

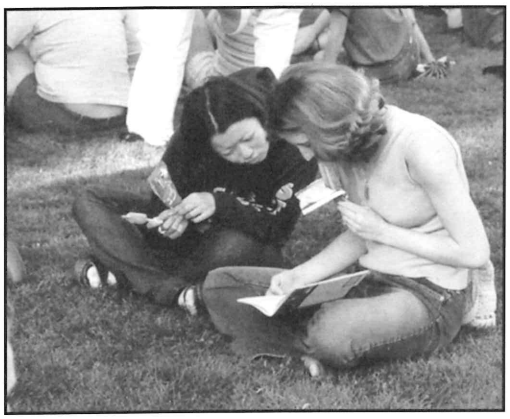

Fond Farewells

Above: Before the parents left, they were invited to a lunch on the clock tower lawn. Aaron Brown and Elizabeth Seybold enjoy some laughs with their parents before they say goodbye.

Clock Tower Picnic

Right: Matt Stratton enjoys lunch with his family. He felt that "Freshman Orientation was fun and provided a bundle of information which made getting to know the campus, its life, and what-not a whole bunch easier."

Above: Suzanne Wood and Josey Hilton put their heads together to figure out what event is going to happen next. Orientation weekend was loaded with fun and informational activities all over campus.

Club Quotes

ociology Club: "One highlight was in December when Professor Emeritus Mike Allen spoke about his ecent sojourn in China. He addressed the educational system in China and all the places he lectured and isited during his three month stay in China as a guest of the government and the Chinese Department of ducation."

– Sharon Linzey

igma Zeta: "We did all sorts of activities – like movie nights, sponsoring seminars, helping with the cience Open House in March, putting on the senior research symposium and banquet, and having group neals at professors' homes. We enjoy putting on events for everyone at George Fox University to enjoy."

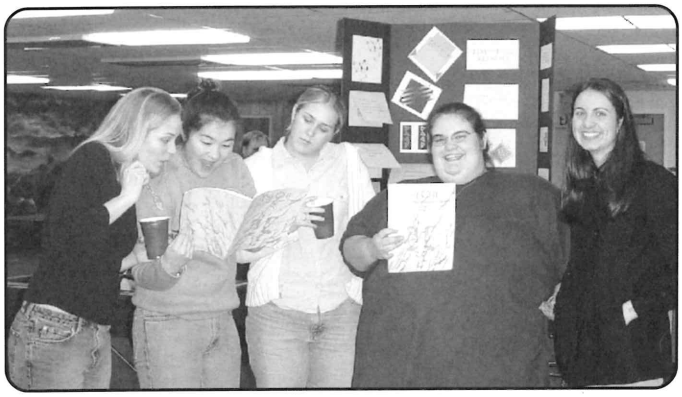

– Stephanie Livingston

hi Delta Kappa: "PDK is a new club to GFU and we are excited to offer it to all education majors. One of ny best memories of PDK is at Christmas time when we held a reception for the education majors and ponsored a food/toy drive."

– Melissa Reid

Serve Day

Serve One Another...

Individual Reflections on the Day

"I think Serve Day is stellar. It is amazing to see what a difference we can make in one day."
–Amanda Potter

"Serve Day was a great chance to get out into the community and really make an impact."
–Ben Weinert

"It was an awesome bonding time with the girls on my floor. We sang praise songs while we worked, and it was a blast."
–Erica Moe

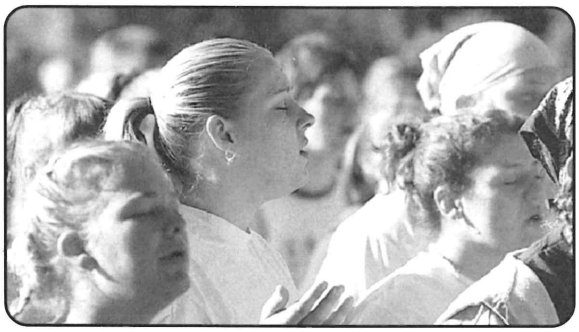

I love giving back to people not only because it is what Christ came to do, but because in doing so, God gives me joy."
–Anna Carkin

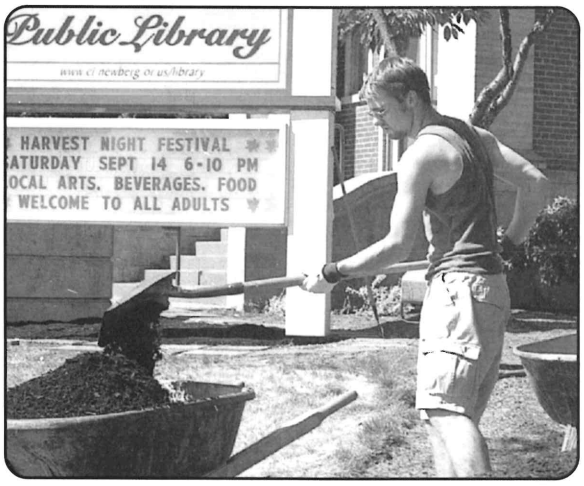

Come Together as a Community

Right: Christina Maguire (center) commented, "I have a new perspective on service...it's not about whether you're seen serving...it's making a difference."

The Right Attitude

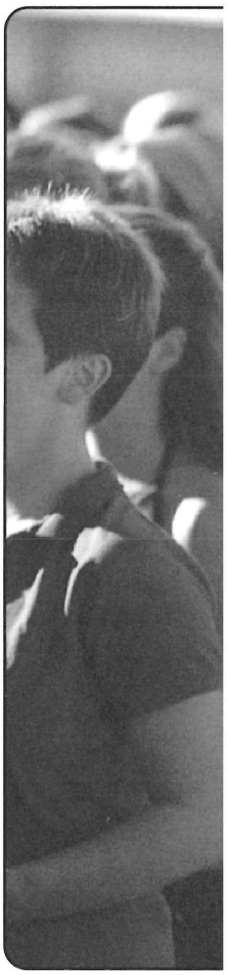

Below: Students, faculty, and staff gather together on the clock tower lawn to spend time in prayer and worship before heading out to their individual serve sites.

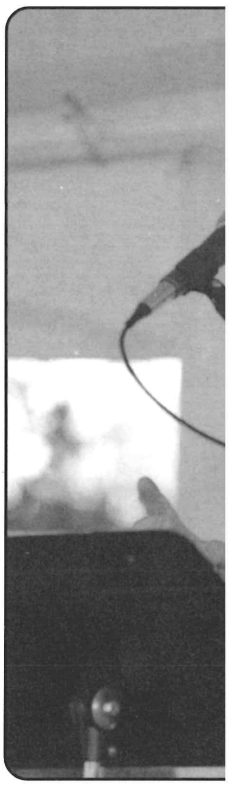

Moving Mountains

Word for Today

Right: "Moving toward 'spiritual formation' sounds like a formidable task. But when understood as the process of connecting with Jesus Christ and learning to live out His life and priorities in the world, it seems more possible. "
–Greg Lamm

Chapel Speakers and Musicians

"The greatest challenge for the Christian today is to love his/her enemy. That goes way beyond tolerating those who are different from me."–Daryl Dixon

Kyle Stump, Student Chaplain, spoke at a fall and a spring chapel, including giving his own testimony.

Nancie Carmichael and her husband, Bill, came and spoke on "Getting Into the Heart of Intimacy."

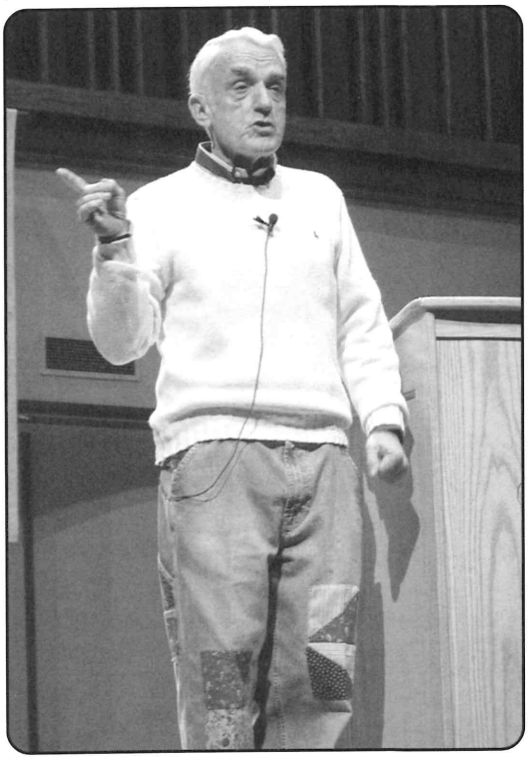

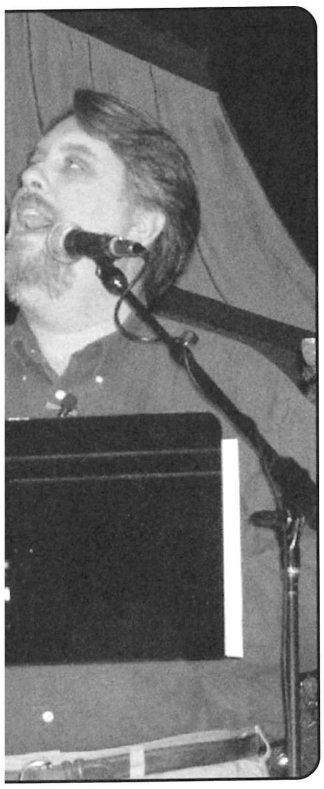

Angel Chiu and several other Tawainese students opened chapel by singing in Mandarin, their native language.

Clothed in Soul-Strength

Left: "Chapel is a great time to pause during a busy day or week and acknowledge God's presence and power in our midst. I thoroughly appreciate the opportunity to be connected to other members of the GFU community as we worship God together and grow in our knowledge and enjoyment of Him." – Brad Lau

Opportunities for Growth

Students worship God with all their hearts, minds, and souls

How have you been blessed by the spiritual activities at Fox?

"They have allowed me to not only experience a side of me that I have never seen before, but also a side of God that I have never seen before." – Kevin Bennie

"They've made me realize just how much I have to learn about Christianity and how very much excited I am to do so."
–Valerie Dorsey

"Participating in these events has made it easier to realize the person God wants me to be."
–Heather Daw

"On a Christian campus where complacency is all too easy, they bring hungry, broken hearts before God."
–Leanne Madore

Worship

Christmas

Celebration at George Fox

Thoughts on the Christmas activites...

"We light our campus at Christmas to remember that Jesus is the light of the world."
– President Brandt

"Santa's a popular fellow with the college students, cause it sure wasn't me."
– Jeff Barnes

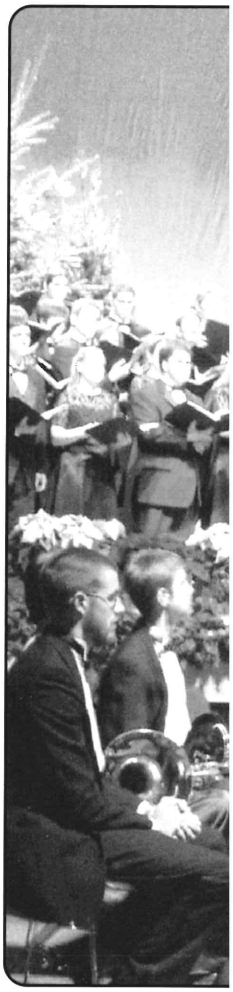

"The cold makes our instruments out of tune, but God loves a joyful noise, even when it is a quarter-step flat."
– Megan Weaver

Roommates Meredith Lundy and Kayla Morgan enjoy "spreading Christmas cheer" under the mistletoe.

MasterPeace

Spring Serve

Utah, Camp Attitude, The Oaks, Mountain to Missions, and Boot Camp

Memories and lessons learned...

"I will always remember story times upon the train. . . but most of all I will remember the love and joy of God that was visible throghout the trip."–Jody Hamm

"The trip was amazing, but the group really enjoyed the time spent in inner-city San Fransisco working with the Salvation Army."–Emily Simms

"I found my calling... I fell in love with truck driving at The Oaks."
–Cheri Spading

"Being little Christs in San Francisco was the most uninhibilted ministry experience of my life."
–John Davis

Retreats

Fall and Spring Semester Outings

Retreat Reflections

"The Spring Retreat was a lot of fun and the weather wasn't too bad. I think it was a time of renewal, spiritually and emotionally."
–Megan Hinkle

"It was great to get to set aside the pressures of homework and to spend the weekend focusing entirely on God."– Tiffany Marks

"The Fall and Spring Retreats were wonderful and I made a bunch of new friends at both!"
– Lutomia Kuto

"Fall Retreat was awesome! I brought my guitar and had a blast jamming with the group and praising God."– Ben Hawkins

University Players

The Drama of George Fox

Personal Reflections

"God works through many different ways in many different situations, Players just gives you a chance to have a front seat." –Nick Ryland

"Players is like a marriage...sometimes you love it, sometimes you don't, but you've made a promise and you need to stay together for the kids."–Matt Tibbs

"My favorite part by far was going to the prisons. The inmates were all so welcoming and the presence of the Holy Spirit was thick in the air." –Lori Schlott

"There were definitely challenging parts throughout the year, but God was always so faithful." –Lianne Hoffman

Players Perform

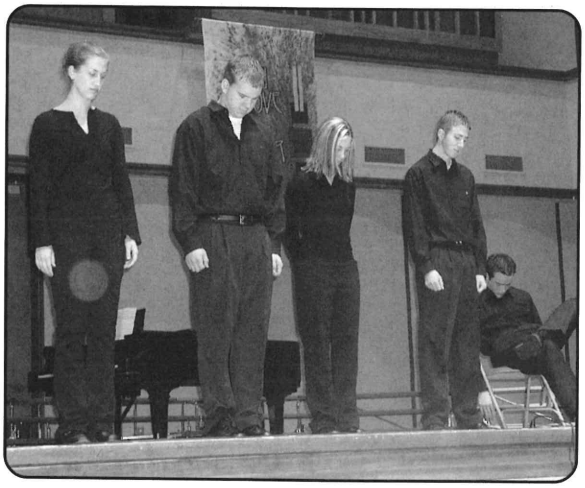

Right: Four of the Players perform a skit during chapel where the characters acts as motorcycles.

Elementary School Performance

Below: "They are funny! They are good!" - General consensus of one of Mable Rush Elementary School's second grade classes, after George Fox Players peformed at their school. "They do Bremman Town Musicians the same, but different than we did" one student noted.

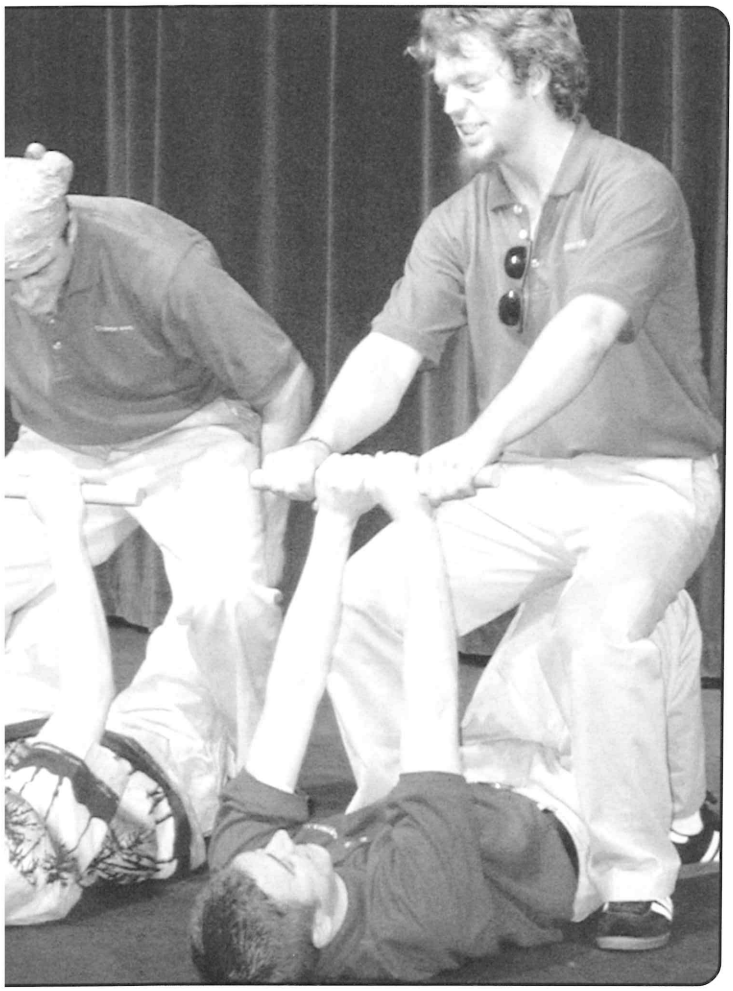

Worship

Above: "Drama is so powerful. It can leave a person feeling like they have just worshiped." –Lori Schlott

Blessed by Ministry

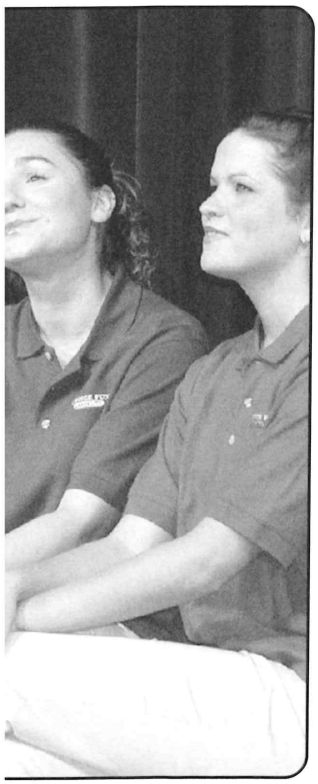

Right: "I feel as though God worked through the group to minister to others, while radically touching and changing our hearts at the same time!" –Lianne Hoffman (right)

Life-Changing Experience

Below: "Players is like strawberry banana yogurt... it looks disgusting but it does the job. There is no way that you could be involved in Players and not have it change your life." – Nick Ryland

The Players Retreat

Favorite Memory...

"On a trip to WA, a group mate made her up for a performance. Standing side by side, they looked identical! "People giggled everytime they saw us."–Rose Passione

"We have learned to work together through any situation and have grown closer to each other and God through that."
–Scott Merrin

"The DaySpring chapel was awesome... DAYSPRING UNPLUGGED... YEAH!"
–Robert Booth
(A power outtage left the group performing without microphones.)

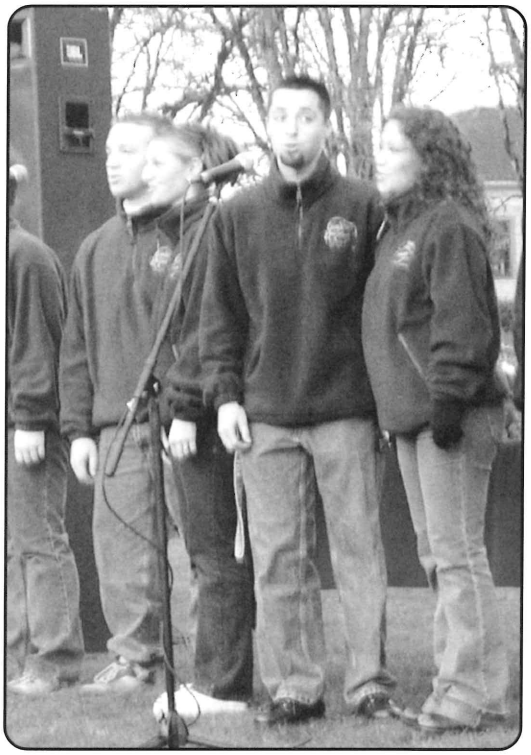

"It gave me the chance to share God's love through the art of music."
–Mark Williams

Community Involvement

Students Reap the Rewards of Service Outside of George Fox

Students Say it Best...

"It is our goal in Young Life to reach out to the farthest out kid and make opportunities for them to hear the gospel."
–Jill Steinfeld

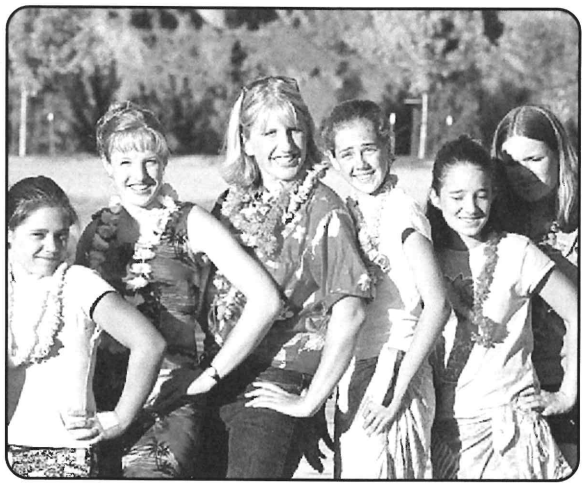

"Wyld Life is an awesome ministry for anyone who is called to touch the lives of middle schoolers."
–Anna Ruble

"Being involved in the community helps me to center my thoughts on the world as whole--rather than just that of GFU."
–Valerie Dorsey

"My simple goal is just to have God there for my kids to see."
–Monique Brown, Newberg First Baptist Church Youth Group Leader

Hawaii at Home

Above: Wyld Life members Anna Ruble and Julie Wilson (second and third from left) invest in the lives of kids via contact work, camp, and regular club meetings.

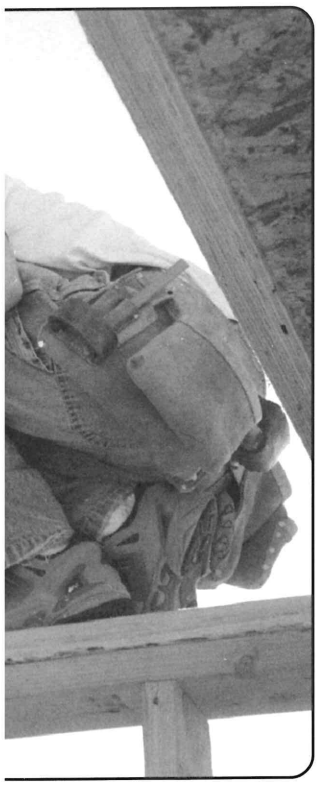

Climbing for a Cause

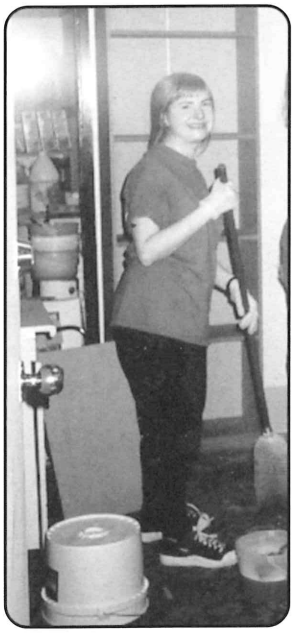

Right: Nick Ryland was one of many Rotaract members who helped build homes for Habitat for Humanity. Rotaract President Matt Gerber said, "Thanks to support from the Newberg Morning and Noon Rotary Clubs, the GFU Rotaract Club has been a catalyst for change and an outlet for service for young adults. We have undertaken a variety of projects including helping out at Habitat for Humanity, and organizing holiday toy and food drives. Over Christmas break we distributed dental and educational supplies we had collected from local dentists and schools to low-income projects in Columbia and Venezuela."

Traveling to the Jungles...
Left: (l-r): Back: Matt Gerber, Amy Fosket, Sondra Klym, Ben McReynolds, and Dave Crisman. Front: Dessa Bingley, Emily Wornell, and Aaron Stewart traveled to Nicargua in May 2003 to participate in humanitarian relief and development projects.

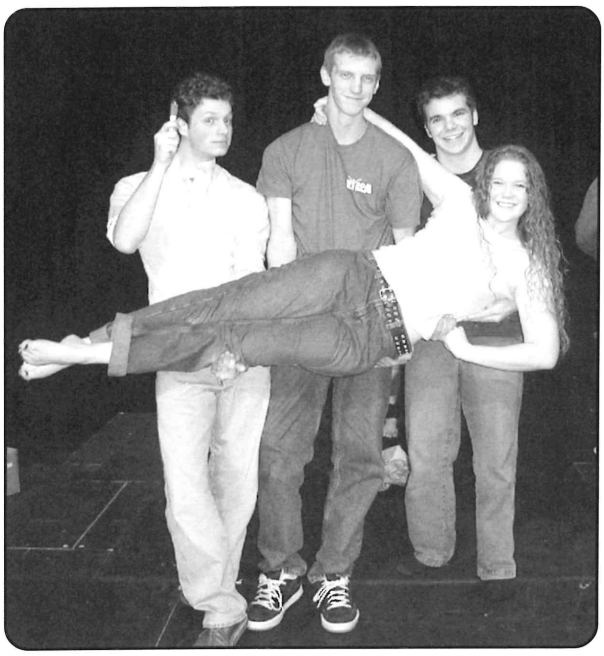

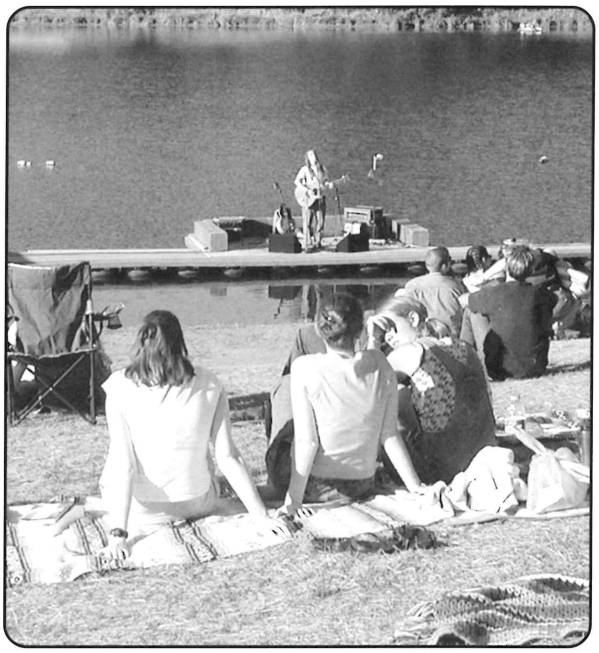

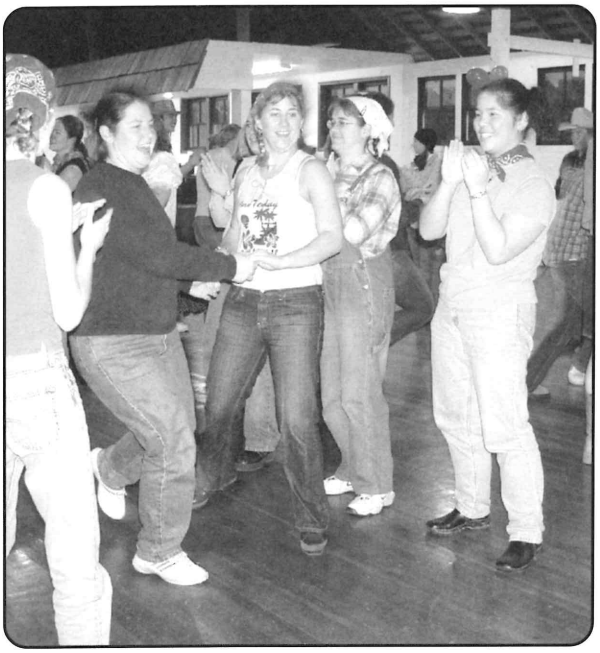

Would You Clean My Room, Too?
Left: Valerie Dorsey, a member of the Newberg branch of Interfaith Voluntary Caregivers (IVC) for six years, demonstrates one of the many chores the organization performs for the elderly free of charge. Other tasks include shopping, cooking, companionship, and cleaning.

"One of the greatest things about Fox is the chance the community provides to have true Christian fellowship. I have learned the importance and beauty of being able to gather with others to pray on a regular basis."

Residence Life
Good Times, Good People

All Staff Retreat

Above: The Residence Life staff gathers for a picture at their retreat. The retreat was a nice break for all the hard-working people who make the living experience awesome.

Nice Outfit Matt

Below: Beth Klopfenstein and Matt Boswell smile for the camera in their "outdoors" wear. The nights were cold and the days were warm, but Matt had the outfit that always works.

Good Times

Above: The HM/AM Staff gathers for a Halloween party. They all love working with Cara Copeland to make their living area a great place for friendships to grow.

GFU Student Life
...After Classroom Hours

Anyone Home? Ben Weinert and Erin Newberry realize that while two's company, a crowd is even better! A few phone calls and hours later, the house was filled with joy and laughter – and a lot of dirty dishes!

Kim Leith, Rebecca Burt, Noelle Bare, Beth Klopfenstein, Brittany Farrer, Miki, Asato, and Michelle Mitchell decided to ditch homework for a night and nosh on Peanut Buster Parfaits instead. Now if they could have just figured out how to share...

Aren't We A-mazing?

Below: (standing) Leanne Madore, Matt Goodwin, Mike Heide, and Lutomia Kuto, (kneeling) Jessica Fegles, Cory Kowalczyk, Michael Bean, and Beth Klopfenstein. Even though they got lost "a couple" of times, this group of buddies had a blast going through a corn maze over in Wilsonville.

It wasn't easy, but all the women from Hobson III got together for a "family" dinner – with an ample serving of "chick chat." Sarah Onstott commented, "It was great to actually get together with my floor and catch up. A lot of the time everyone's so busy that we aren't all able to just hang out and have fun!."

Flying High

Right: (l-r) Michael Bean, Beth Klopstein, Jessica Fegles, and Cory Kowalczyk decided to out-do all the other dorms and rode to Roomies in a piloted helicopter. Beth remarked, "The helicopter motor was incredibly loud, but it was so awesome to be flying to Roomies. I'd definitely do it again!"

Life Beyond Classes...
The Fun Side of Fox

(L-R) Katie Heater, Noelle Bare, Nicole Quiring, and Beth Klopfenstein spend the evening celebrating good times at Shari's Restaurant in Newberg. The 24-hour eatery is a popular destination for students to chow down, hang out, and study.

Ryan Backman and Lisa Shafer prove that the college life doesn't have to be all work and no play by spending a fun evening together. Both individuals are leaders of the Outdoor Club as well, which provides another outlet for fun.

Hug Huddle!

Below: Katie Fox, Sue Newell (professor), and Kristen Damron spent the evening in fellowship, discussing the wonders of God and His influence in the livelihoods of others.

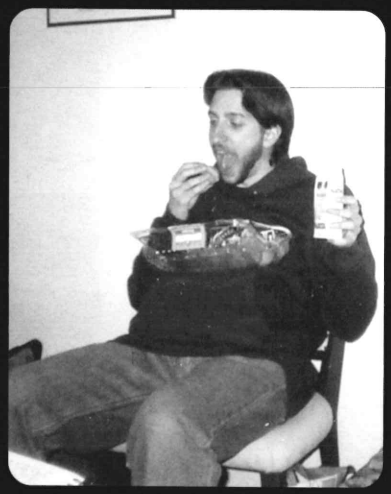

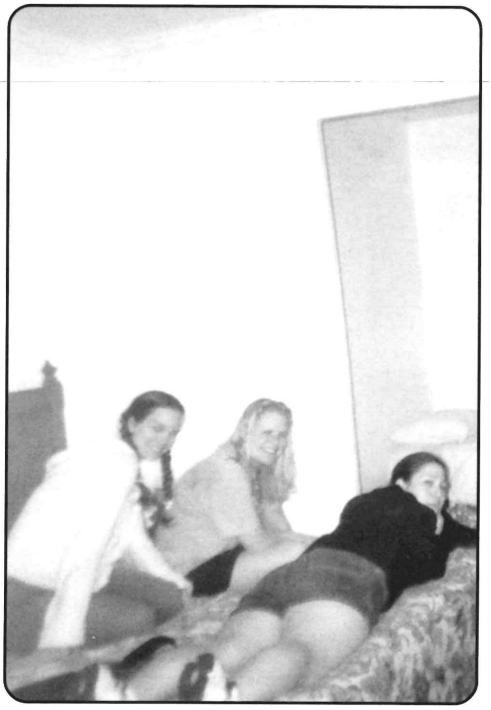

Tim LaFolette sets out to prove that only a real man can down a box of muffins and wash it all down with a carton of milk. Rest assured that according to the 10 GFU women witnessing the "reality show" - like event , Tim successfully conquered his mission and didn't even gain a pound in the process. Men have all the luck!

Did You Come to Join Us?

Right: Peggy Cutler, Mindy Barnett, and Emily Martinez kick back after a long day with a ladies-only night of gossip, life, and love. Mindy Barnett remarks, "A roomful of girls got together that day, and we had a blast getting to know each other better!"

Fall ASC Activities

Concerts and Parties

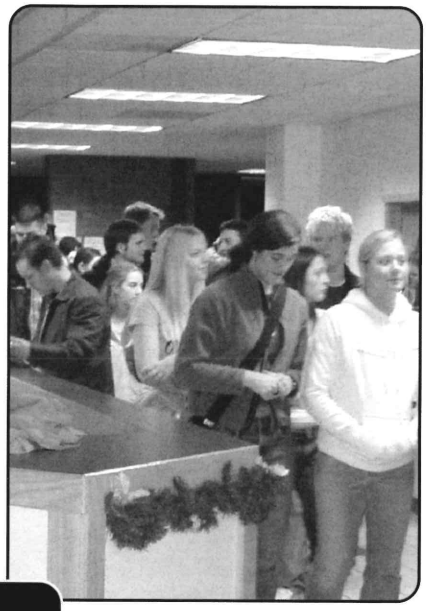

Several artists performed on a stage floating on the lake for the Tilikum concert in late September. Here, Justin McRoberts plays a piece. Students had a chance to sit on the shore and enjoy the music, along with drinks from the Coffee Cottage.

In addition to enjoying good music, students had a chance to try out the high ropes course at the Tilikum concert. Nikki Chase (right) was one of the students who bravely took on the ropes course challenge. She said, "Doing the ropes course is challenging, but so much fun!"

What will YOU do for breakfast?

Below: Students line up for the traditional midnight breakfast at the end of Dead Day. The breakfast is a great chance to take a study break and enjoy a snack.

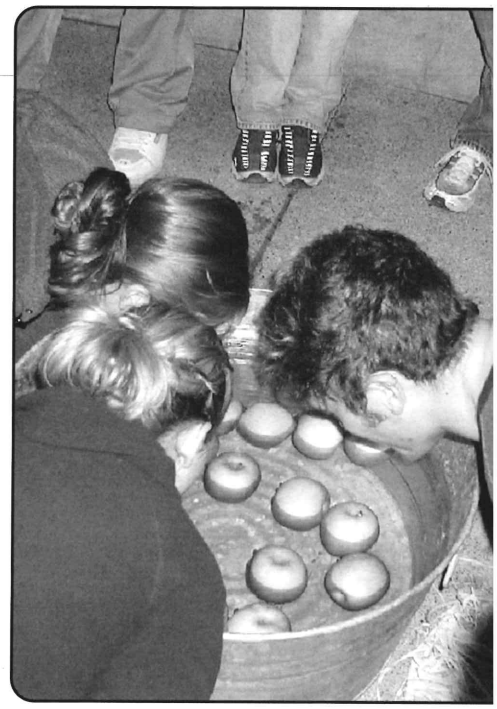

"Bunco night was a great activity to get the year started. It is a fun way to get to know new people and have some stinkin' good fun with friends. I appreciate the ASC Activities Committee for all of their hard work in putting together quality activities for the GFU students."
–Sarah Walden

Harvest Party at Tilikum

Spring ASC Activities

A great way to deal with spring fever

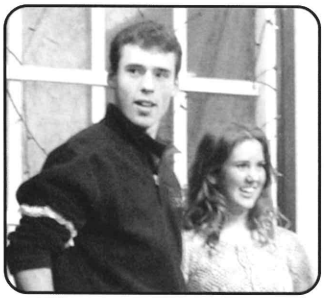

Broom Hockey

Broom hockey was a nice distraction from studies. Some students were competitive... others, like Jenni Adams, played guitar on their brooms.

The Dating Game

Jesse Rasmussen with Heather Spencer, the girl he picked, sight unseen. The contestants were required to sing and were asked questions by the bachelor.

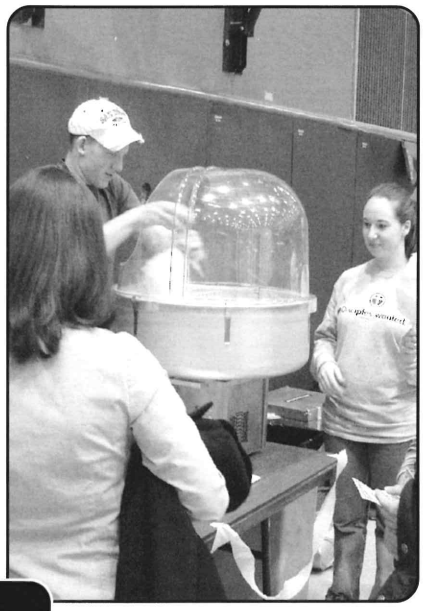

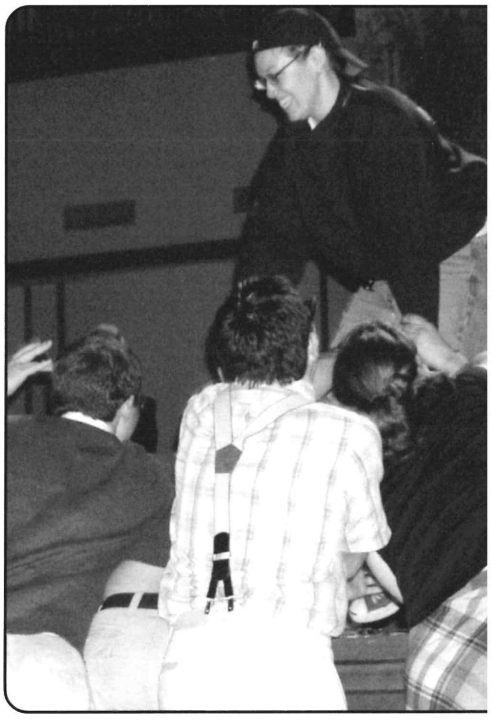

"Let's Make A Deal was crazy cool! We all had such a blast and are definitely going next year! However, since our costumes kinda sucked compared to everyone elses we're going back next year with a vengeance and are gonna look amazing!"

ASC Central Committee

The People Behind the Scenes

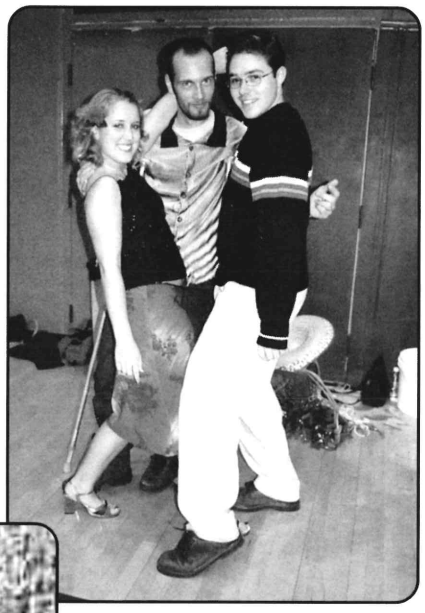

Bethany Winstead said of her experience as secretary, "ASC opens your eyes to the inner workings of the school and provides more understanding of how to better serve the students."

As any other experience, being on the ASC Central Committee is a combination of good times and hard work. Treasurer Josh Hunter summed this up with some well-known words: "The agony and the ecstasy."

Close and Comfy

Below: Nicole Fitzhugh, Ben Weinert, and Josh Hunter show just how close the Central Committee really is at the ASC-sponsored Salsa Dance.

Songs in Their Heart...
Brilliance of the Bands

In her second year of handbells, Erika Soule listens closely to the wisdom of director John Bowman to further expand her talent for making beautiful music. When asked about playing in the handbell choir next year as a junior, Erika Soule emphatically stated, "We had a great group this year, so, yes, I would love to!"

Jesse Dillow and Megan Weaver entertain those in attendance at an April chapel service with the glorious sounds of their intricate musical instruments. Both were members of George Fox's Brass Ensemble.

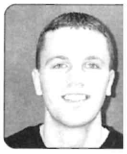

May We Play a Few Tunes?

Below: After hearing the awesome tunes of the band, many audience members were left with the sentiment of wishing they could play in an ensemble themselves! If only learning to play was easier...

Clubs That...
Capture Our Interest

"Clubs are a way for all students to get involved at Fox, learn new and interesting things, and meet some really amazing people who are dedicated to God and the school."
–Valerie Schull

"Mediation is a means of conflict resolution that strives to safely bring both sides of a conflict to the same table. The mediation process has a high success rate and it is great to see people come together and heal broken relationships."
– Lisa Delzer, Mediation Club President

Autumn Activity

Below: A pre-Halloween get-together is just one of many ways the International Club provides opportunities for all international students to enjoy each other and discover their diverse cultures.

Fine Dining
Below: Students from each class participate in a pie-eating contest while being cheered on by teammates during the Homecoming assembly.

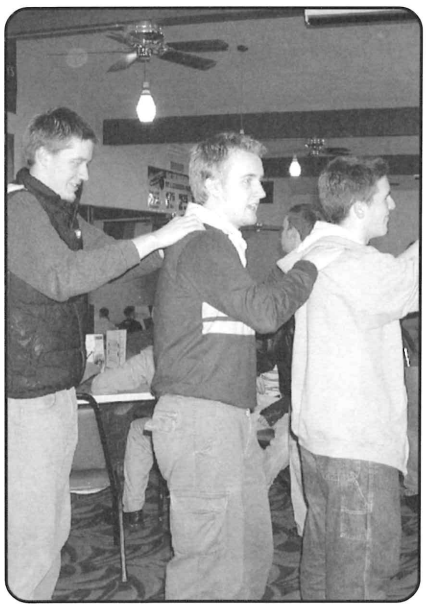

Holding Court

On Their Thrones

Getting Pumped

Left: Steve Tussing, Matt Boswell, and Chad Burns prepare for an evening of some intense bowling.

Mr. Bruin 2003
Bruins on Broadway

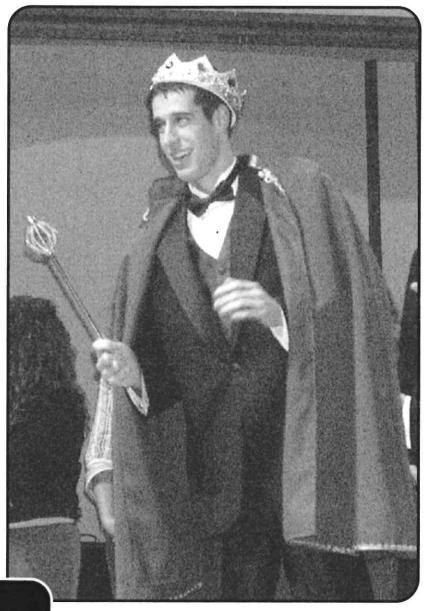

Daniel Guidry impresses the audience with some amazing harmonica music, the Brooklyn way! Daniel enjoys reading, playing Scrabble, eating, ultimate frisbee, and frisbee golf.

1st Runner Up Ryan Hiebert used cowboy boots and a hat to assist him in serenading the audience with a lovely rendition of Tim McGraw's "Something Like That." He had some great back-up, including Robbie Bletscher, as seen in the background.

Mr. Bruin Himself

Below: Chris Walson receives his crown, robe, and sceptre. He participated in Mr. Bruin because he wanted "to make a difference in the lives of children who have everything in the world to hope and dream for."

Mr. Bruin 2003 – Chris Walson
1st Runner Up – Ryan Hiebert
2nd Runner Up – Josh Hopkins-Hubbard

Arrgh Mateys

Right: David Shielee employed the vocal talents of Pisey Sok, Chad Stillinger, Joel Hoffman, and Bryan Hoerr to create a pirate's medley, barbershop quartet style!

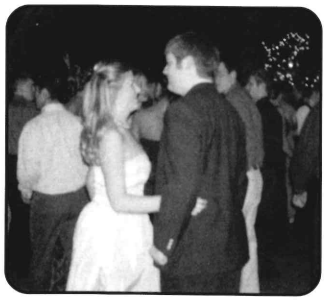

What a Dance!

Above: The guys worked very hard to learn an opening dance for the audience's viewing pleasure. Pisey Sok, Willy Riese, David Shielee, and Nick Hultberg take a quick breather, letting the other contestants strut their stuff.

Real Live Mario and Luigi?

Left: That's right! John Penewit (pictured) and Jered Gritters took the audience back to their childhood and the days of Mario Brothers on Nintendo for their talent. Their performance was a beautiful tribute to the game, complete with killer turtles, fire power, and Princess Peach!

Spring Formal

Claire Holiday and Randy Kaufman share a quieter moment at Spring Formal during one of the slower paced songs.

"My favorite part was the horse drawn carriage ride. The weather was just perfect for it, too. It was a wonderful touch to a lovely evening!"
–Heather Luben

What's so funny?

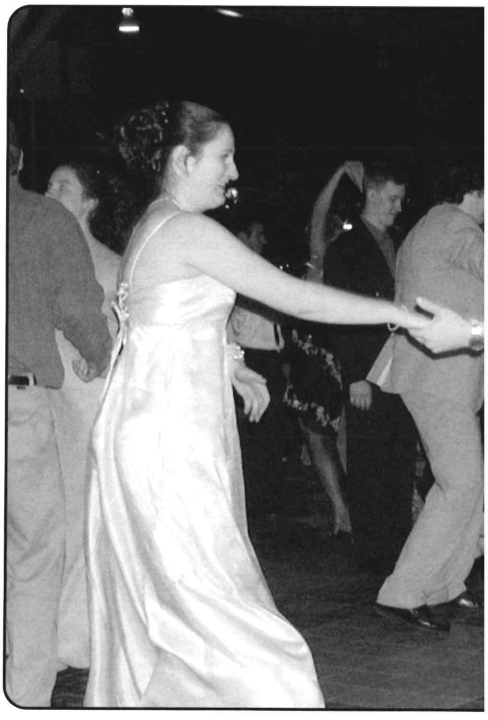

Below: Rachellie George, Kirsten Blikstad, and Yen Tse laugh at some of the other dance styles.

Moonlight and Roses

Spring Formal was held at the Portland World Trade Center on the Plaza. The theme was Moolight and Roses. Roses decorated the site, and lamp posts lined a red carpet leading to three horse-drawn carriages that were available for couples to ride throughout the night.

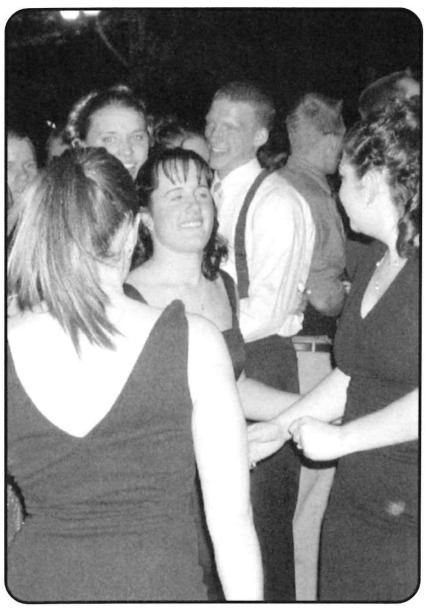

Everybody Swing!

Right: Amy Dufour dances with her date, Brandon Wallace. Amy commented, "For us graduating seniors, it's a great chance to be part of one last big event."

Swing Time

Above: Students pair up to swing dance with the lively music at Spring Formal.

Movin to the Beat

Left: The focus of Spring Formal is the dancing. Here, students enjoy a fast paced song as they dance.

Godspell

"It made faith real..." –Rebecca Dupree

Left: Marilee Jolin lights up the stage. She said, "Personally I met my Savior in a new way through doing Godspell. When Jesus came to earth He put flesh on so we could relate to him. Doing Godspell gave Jesus flesh so I could experience Him 2,000 years later."

Right: Rebecca Dupree brings the New Testament to life for many. She said, "It was amazing to see the aspects of our faith in action, to actually be a part of the last supper, to see crucifixion, and know that you had a part to play...it was incredibly moving.

It Was Worth It

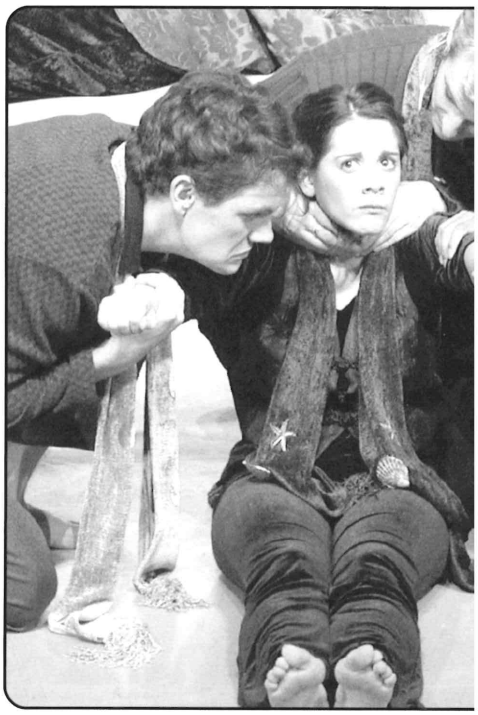

Below: When asked about his experience in the play, Jon Hall said, "'Godspell' was truly a special play for everyone involved. The road was hard and there were times I thought I couldn't handle it, but after we were done, I knew it was all worth it."

One Common Goal

Right: Nikki Chase becomes part of the New Testament, acting out a parable. She described her experience by saying, "for the first time my two passions, theatre and ministry, were united into one vision. Whether in song, dance, acting, working on the set, etc., the entire cast and staff of 'Godspell' was focused on one common goal-to glorify God."

The Cast was Like a Family

Above: The whole cast strikes a pose. Michael Favale, pictured third from the right, was one of three actors nominated to participate in the Irene Ryan Acting Competition at the Northwest Regional Festival. Marilee Jolin and Tim Lafolette were also awarded this honor. In addition, "Godspell" was one of four productions selected as a finalist in this regional festival sponsored by the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

A Beautiful Journey

Left: Jon Hall, Suzanne Santos, and John Meindersee perform a parable. Suzanne said, "'Godspell' helped me to strengthen my relationship with Christ in many ways. I began to really understand the apostles' emotional and spiritual journeys, and previously I had overlooked the significance of their human connection with Jesus. The show was a beautiful journey and I am blessed to have shared it with the entire cast and crew."

A Piece of My Heart

We are Striving for the Compassion of Christ.

Suzanne Santos on her character and the play: "Leeann will always be a part of me and this production has impacted me beyond words. Working with this cast and crew was truly a blessing. Their commitment to this story was inspirational."

"The timing was providential. As our country was presently on the verge of war, we were exploring the lives of these women vets, and in doing so, confronted our own perceptions of war. "

–Lindsay Younce (right)

Audience Reaction

Below: Jennifer Cooper and Malorie Wilson. Audience member Katie Heater said, "The play really conveyed the inner struggle of women during Vietnam. I was very touched."

Cast List

Suzanne Santos	Michael Shelton
Jennifer Cooper	Luke Watson
Lindsay Younce	Carol Blackburn
Marilee Jolin	Malorie Wilson
Bwalya Chileya	Lisa Misek
Lauren Stelzenmueller	Diane Carlson

A Stretching Experience

Right: Lindsay Younce, Bwalya Chileya, Suzanne Santos, Jennifer Cooper, and Lauren Stelzenmueller. Another cast member, Diane Carlson, said "Being a part of "A Piece of My Heart" was an emotional and spiritually stretching experience. I know I will never think of war in the same way."

In Formation

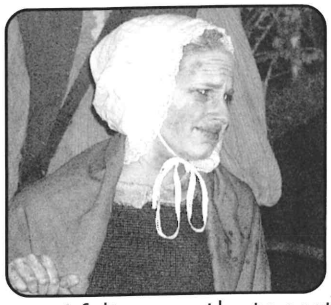

Above: Bwalya Chileya, Marilee Jolin, Lindsay Younce, Jennifer Cooper, Lauren Stelzenmueller, and Suzanne Santos. In the director's notes, Kelley Marchant wrote: "We may not like war; we may not be directly or indirectly involved with war; we may not agree with war; we may not like the words and actions of those who participate in war; but we are called to love those who fall into all those categories."

A Personal Tribute

Left: Michael Shelton and Lindsay Younce give a heartfelt performance of yet another scene which helped to represent the numerous men and women affected by the Vietnam War.

The Crucible

Authentic faith versus blind religion

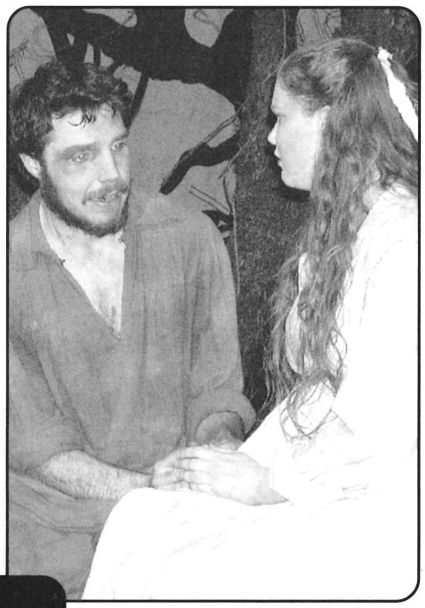

"This play has led me to ask myself some tough questions. Do I as a Christian truly believe that God is bigger than the fears and evils of this world? Do I believe this truth so deeply that I would die for it? In some ways, I felt unworthy to portray Rebecca Nurse. . . Her faith is so strong in the face of humiliation and death. I can only hope that I would respond as Rebecca did."
–Megan Weaver

"Although the story in the play takes place hundreds of years ago, it is still so relevant considering similar travesties in American history... It is a play defending human rights and warning us not to let history repeat itself."
–John Meindersee

Saying Goodbye

Below: Michael Favale, as John Proctor, says good-bye to his wife, Elizabeth Proctor, played by Carrie Sullins. John Proctor is about to be taken to the gallows for his association with the "witches" in the town of Salem.

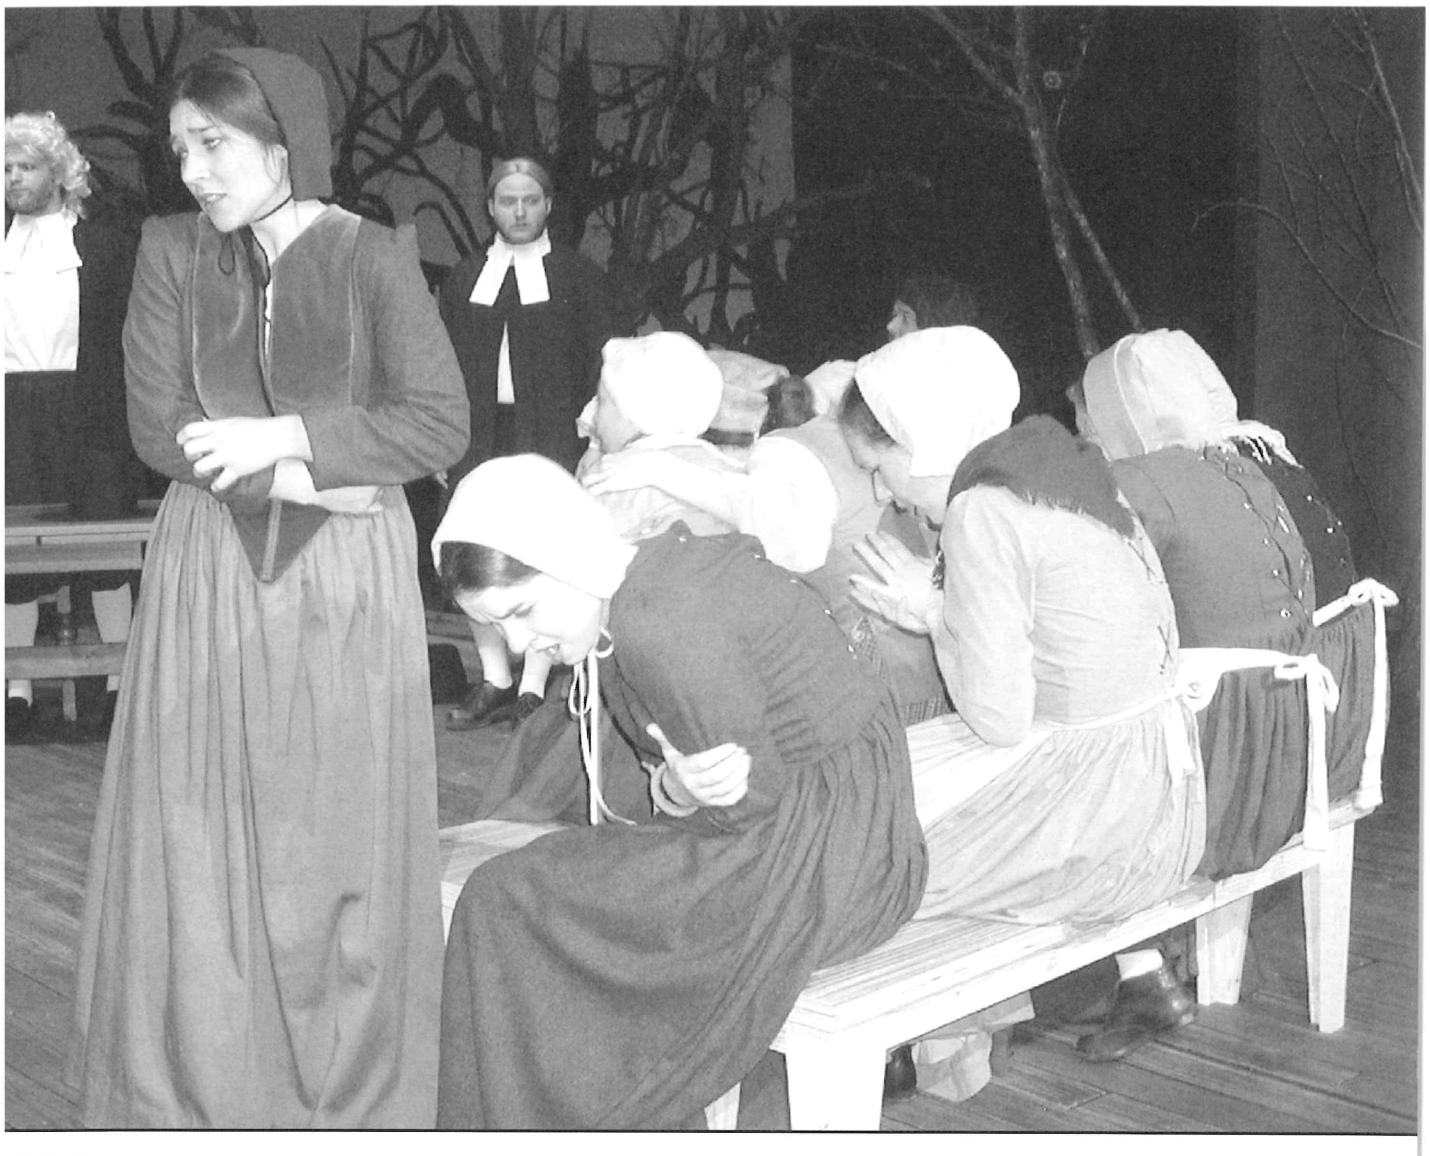

Cast List

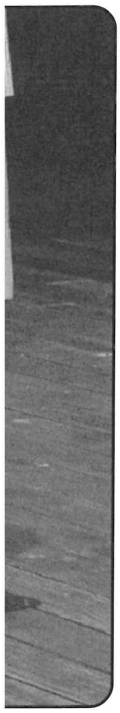

Lindsay Younce	Sean Merrick
Caitlyn Wehr	Michael Favale
Liz Hughes	Andrew Englen
Suzanne Santos	Megan Weaver
Rebecca DuPree	Jon Hall
Angela Weece	Carrie Sullins
Joann Whittaker	Paul Hays
Charity Joecks	Eric Ambrose
Nikki Chase	Brandon Wallace
Regina Burg	Benjamin Cadd
John Meindersee II	Stephanie Steinhorst
Malorie Wilson	Stephen Keck

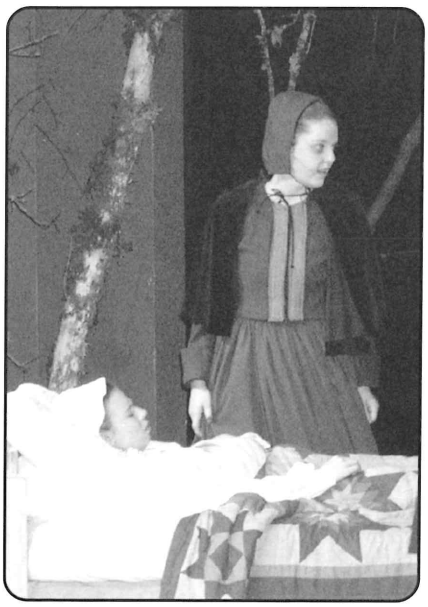

An Example to Learn From

Right: Suzanne Santos as Tituba. Director Tonya Lynne Wildhaber writes, "May we learn from Salem's example and the broken heroes in this story and strive to embrace grace and mercy within the crucibles of our own lives."

Learning through Acting

Above: ""The Crucible" was a crucible for everyone involved. I think we all learned a lot about ourselves during the course of the show."
– Lindsay Younce, standing, played Abigail Williams.

Lessons for Today

Left: "The social issues and warnings that are raised by the show are invaluable to us today. When hate and fear become our driving forces, society crumbles. Not to mention, it afforded me the opportunity to look like the angel of death in public and get away with it."
– Malorie Wilson (standing), as Mrs. Ann Putnam, shown with Caitlyn Wehr as Betty Paris .
